

DAVE DONOVAN

Executive Director
DKC / DKC Sports

Donovan is a 20-year veteran of DKC and oversees the firm's award-winning sports practice. He's represented an eclectic mix of clients including Kevin Durant, Golden State Warriors, New York Islanders, Formula 1, Manchester City, Premier League, Val Ackerman/Big East Conference, Jay Williams, Ted Leonsis, Ken Burns/PBS Meta, Sports Business Journal, Sports Illustrated, BMW, UBS, Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, and Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He provides strategic communications counsel to a wide range of individuals and brands; manages PR activations for many of the most prestigious sponsorships in sports; spearheads press relations for several global events and consistently develops data-driven integrated marketing campaigns that illuminate brand awareness and accelerate core business objectives.

Donovan also leads DKC's award-winning media training and crisis practices.

He began his career in broadcast news, anchoring and reporting on both television and radio. During his tenure with the ABC and NPR stations in Syracuse, New York, he was honored with local news Emmy and Press Club awards.

Donovan earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Communications at Syracuse University.
